Indemnity:

Welbedacht is a Nature Reserve and its cottages and facilities are located in the open veldt / bush of this Reserve without fences, gates or paved paths. There are no safety precautions such as railings around porches, fences around splash pools or dams, smooth walking paths, etc and as such, guests and their visitors will be expected to apply a certain amount of common sense, awareness of their surrounds and basic caution during their stay.

Guests and their visitors must understand that there is a variety of fauna on the Reserve and although the areas around the cottages are kept and maintained, one can expect to encounter a variety of animals and birds and naturally also insects, reptiles and other small wildlife.

Guests must note that by making payment of the applicable rental, the guest(s) unreservedly indemnify(ies) the Blue Butterfly Trust, dba Welbedacht Game & Nature Reserve, its management, trustees, representatives or employees of any liability for injury, losses and damages incurred by the guest(s) and his / her company occupying, visiting or entering Welbedacht.
